

Soliciting Applications for Rate Study Advisory Committee

The City of Redlands' City Council is seeking applications to serve on a Utilities Advisory Committee for a Water and Wastewater Rate Study.

The purpose of the committee is to review and recommend water and wastewater rates to the City Council.

The study will take approximately six months and committee members will be expected to attend four to six meetings. The committee will meet tentatively on Wednesdays or Thursdays from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

If you are interested to serve on the committee, please visit the City's website at www.cityofredlands.org or call Jane Weathers for an application at (909)798-7698 extension 4145.
