

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

CELEBRATE DIVERSITY

February 1st - March 1st

Black History Month is an annual observance dedicated to celebrating the achievements, contributions, and cultural heritage of African Americans and people of African descent. It originated from the efforts of Dr. Carter G. Woodson and others to recognize the often-overlooked role of Black individuals in history. Observed in February, the month serves as a time for reflection, education, and dialogue on issues of race, equality, and social justice. Through various events and activities, Black History Month highlights the resilience, accomplishments, and ongoing struggles of the Black community, promoting diversity, inclusion, and understanding in society.

BLACK VOICES

HARRIET TUBMAN

American Abolitionist & Social Activist

“
I was a conductor of the Underground Railroad for eight years, and I can say what most conductors can't say; I never ran my train off the track and I never lost a passenger.

“
Change will not come if we wait for some other person or some other time. We are the ones we've been waiting for. We are the change that we seek.

BARACK OBAMA

44th U.S. President

MAYA ANGELOU

American Memoirist & Poet

“
History, despite its wrenching pain, cannot be unlived, but if faced with courage, need not be lived again.

“
A life is not important except in the impact it has on other lives.

JACKIE ROBINSON

American Baseball Player

MALCOM X

Civil Rights Movement Leader

“
I believe in human beings, and that all human beings should be respected as such, regardless of their color.
