

Tailgate with a Cop

before the University of Redlands'

"Take a Kid to the Game Night"

Saturday, October 16

University of Redlands -- Ted Runner Stadium

Tailgate Party -- 5:00 p.m.

Football Game -- 7:00 p.m.

In partnership with the University of Redlands, the Redlands Police Department will be cooking up hot dogs at a tailgate party before the "Take a Kid to the Game Night" at Ted Runner Stadium! Tailgate party attendees will be able to enjoy a free hot dog and hang out with police officers and University members before watching the Redlands Bulldogs versus the Pomona-Pitzer Sagehens football game. There will be door prizes, including bicycles!

All the football, food, and fun is free! (All kids 18 and under, as well as any adult who brings a child to the game, will receive free admission to the Bulldogs' football game through the University of Redlands' participation in "Take a Kid to the Game Night." One free adult per child.) Represent your team, club, or organization by wearing your uniform shirt!
